

NEW YORK

2009 Best of New York Picks

Robin Raisfeld

The Best Restaurants to Open in the Past Year

Our critics' picks, in no particular order.

From left: Corton, Yerba Buena, Co.

(Photo: From left: Konstantin Sergeev, Courtesy of Yerba Buena; Hannah Whitaker/New York Magazine)

Yerba Buena

23 Ave. A, nr. 2nd St.; 212-529-2919

A postage-stamp-size oasis of suave service, with great Pan-Latin snacks, a respectable fish taco, and topnotch cocktails by Pegu Club-trained barman Artemio Vasquez.

March 11, 2009