

BAR, CLUB & LOUNGE GUIDE

Yerba Buena

Coming here is like stepping back into old-time Havana, minus the street gangs. The dark and breezy space has a calming Hemingway-era tropical color scheme, leafy wallpaper and white banquettes. Simple, pan-Latin dishes are mostly of Peruvian, Argentinean and Cuban influence. Highlights include a range of ceviches, stewed rabbit and roasted suckling pig. The smoked glass bar is spacious and comfortable, and there's a wide menu of drinks to choose from, priced at $11. The signature Yerba Buena mojito is made with the mint-like herb the restaurant is named for—aka "good herb." Sounds like a recipe for relaxation to us.

WWW.SHECKYS.COM